

Greetings Friends of KLT!

As 2023 begins to wind down, KLT would like to extend its gratitude for the time that we spent together this year enjoying KLT protected lands.

The moments of learning, laughter and connection sparked by gathering outdoors to appreciate the natural wonders of Kansas were truly a gift.

Please enjoy these photos highlighting our 2023 outdoors adventures and stay tuned for our 2024 calendar of events!

Enjoying some February sunshine together at Buck Creek in Jefferson County.

Geologist Rex Buchanan pointing out notable features of the rocks at Buck Creek in February.

Patti Beedles leading a March walk highlighting spring ephemerals at the Earles Woodlands in Douglas County.

Courtney Masterson sharing a small wonder of the prairie in May with curious kids at the Akin Prairie in Douglas County.

Creating artwork inspired by exploring the Akin Prairie in May.

KLT Board member Kelly Kindscher highlights the compass plant during the annual Akin Prairie Wildflower walk in June.

Kansas Native Seed Team members preparing to collect seeds at the Earles Woodlands in September.

Birdwatching with the Lawrence Bird Alliance at the Oldfather Easement in Douglas County in October.

Volunteers clearing invasive winter creeper from the Lawrence Nature Park in November.

SAVE THE DATE!

GIVING TUESDAY

Tuesday
November 28th, 2023

Mark your calendar for Tuesday, November 28th and consider helping KLT reach its $5,000 Giving Tuesday goal. Giving Tuesday donations will go toward supporting KLT's outdoor programs.

Added bonus! Gifts made on Giving Tuesday will be matched, thanks to generous KLT donors.

Our Contact Information

{{Organization Name}}
{{Organization Address}}
{{Organization Phone}}
{{Organization Website}}

